

Fourth NATIONAL PLAN FOR EQUALITY – CITIZENSHIP, GENDER and NON – DISCRIMINATION (2011-2013), Original Portuguese version published in Diário da República (Official Gazette) - I Série, N° 12 - 18/01/2011

The Fourth National Plan for Equality - Citizenship, Gender and Non-discrimination (2011-2013) is an instrument of public politics to promote the Gender Equality. A framework is provided to guarantee the commitments assumed by Portugal in international instances, especially in United Nations, Council of Europe and European Union.

The Fourth National Plan for Equality - Citizenship , Gender and Non-discrimination (2011-2013) defines 14 Strategic Intervention Areas, namely: 1) Gender Mainstreaming as a requirement for Good Governance; 2) Economic Independence, Labour Market and Conciliation of Professional, Family and Personal Life; 3) Education, Higher Education and Lifelong Training; 4) Health; 5) Environment and Territory Organization; 6) Research and Knowledge-based society; 7) Sport and Culture; 8) Media, Publicity and Marketing, 9) Gender-based Violence; 10) Social Inclusion; 11) Sexual orientation and gender identity; 12 Youth; 13) Non-governmental organizations; 14) International relations and Cooperation.